

Breakfast for Children

www.ligali.org

This breakfast for children programme in Oakland, California, 1969 was one of many social enterprises run by the Black Panther Party. Despite the negative populist media representation of the Panthers solely as an aggressive 'militant' organisation, African American communities supported their work which reached the most disadvantaged and vulnerable.