

Clifford Vaughs

www.ligali.org

During 1964, the National Guard were often called out to suppress desegregation campaigns. This photograph was taken by Danny Lyon at Cambridge, Maryland 2 May 1964 when SNCC photographer Clifford Vaughs was arrested for photographing the habitual abuse of police powers to smother African American political dissent.